Mumbai: Club Mahindra. Travel, (CMT), the travel division of Mahindra Holidays and Resorts India Ltd, has earned the distinction of receiving the IATA accreditation with effect from 1st July '08. The recently launched Club Mahindra.Travel serves as a complete travel planner for members thus making their holiday experience memorable. Club Mahindra.Travel is registered under Mahindra Holidays & Resorts India Ltd and will trade as Club Mahindra.Travel (CMT).

The CMT portal, certified by IATA for its complete travel planning service is fully equipped to assist every single need of its growing membership base, right from accommodation to air tickets, hotel bookings, international packages, cruises, etc. The service also takes care of documentation like visa processing, foreign exchange and travel insurance. CMT headquarters is in Chennai with branches extending across Mumbai, Bangalore, Hyderabad and Ahmedabad.

Mr. Ramesh Ramanathan, MD, Mahindra Holidays & Resorts said, 'With the IATA certification, we are now closer to our aim of offering a complete travel package under one umbrella thus making it a one stop solution experience for any of our customers'.

Club Mahindra.Travel shall address the leisure travel needs of all consumers while primarily servicing Club Mahindra members. It will also enable MHRIL to play a larger role in the industry with automatic access to travel agents / associations of India (TAAI) and Travel Agents Federation of India (TAFI).

IATA stands for International Air Transport Association, and is a license to promote and sell International Air Tickets from particular premises, whosoever has been accredited with an IATA certificate.
