Mr. Ramesh Iyer, Chairman, FIDC said, "NBFCs have emerged as an important constituent of the financial services sector and the economy. The sector has played a key role in funding first-time borrowers, the unbanked and unbankable customers, thus achieving Financial Inclusion in its true sense. The sector has recently witnessed several challenges, and it is time for us to work collectively towards incorporating higher standards of governance and compliance, to ensure that the concerns of Regulators, Investors and Lenders are well-addressed."

Further, thanking the outgoing Chairman, Mr. Iyer stated, "Raman Aggarwal's tenure as Chairman during the last 4 years has been very challenging as it coincided with one of the most critical phases in the sector. Mr. Raman Aggarwal will continue as the additional Co-Chairman of FIDC along with Mr. K V Srinivasan.

FIDC has consistently taken a positive and pro-active stance on issues concerning the NBFC Sector and has played a significant role in some of the initiatives undertaken by the Government and the RBI to boost the sector such as: Liquidity Package, Debenture Redemption Reserve exemption, Exemption from Section 43D, Banks-NBFCs- PSL, KYC relaxation, Access to TreDS for NBFCs and Easier norms for External Commercial Borrowing.

FIDC will study and analyse the best practices and systems followed by large NBFCs and support Medium and Small NBFCs to put them in practice, thus encouraging the NBFC sector to follow a uniform code of conduct and harmonized systems. FIDC will work towards strengthening the skill set of NBFCs by conducting Training sessions, Seminars and Workshops and tying up with various Institutes for this purpose.
